River Bank Erosion: A threat to the human well being , Maldah,

I am writing this acknowledgement to express my deepest appreciation and heartfelt gratitude for my Supervisor and Guide Dr. Deepa Bhattaharyya, Assistant Professor & H.O.D, Dept. of Geography, Maheshtala College, for her exceptional guidance and mentorship during the course of the project work on river bank erosion. Your unwavering support and expertise have been instrumental in making this project a resounding success.

Throughout the project, your profound knowledge of the subject matter, coupled with your enthusiasm, has inspired and motivated me to delve deeper into the complexities of river bank erosion. Your valuable insights and constructive feedback have not only enhanced the quality of our work but have also broadened my understanding of the broader implications of this critical environmental issue.

Your accessibility and willingness to dedicate time to discuss ideas, brainstorm solutions, and offer valuable suggestions have made an immense difference in the progress of this project. Your constant encouragement to explore innovative approaches has instilled in me the confidence to think creatively and tackle challenges with a positive outlook.

Your mentorship has not only honed my technical skills but has also imparted invaluable life lessons.

Once again, thank you for your mentorship and for being a constant source of inspiration throughout this project. Your dedication to advancing knowledge and making a difference in the field of river bank erosion is truly commendable. Once again, thank you for your invaluable assistance and for being a crucial partner in my research/project. I am proud to have been able to collaborate with a government official who exemplifies excellence and integrity in public service.

I am grateful to other Departmental teachers and college authorities for their active co-operations during my course of study. Last, but not the least, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my beloved parents and friends wishes for the successful completion of this Project work.

With deepest appreciation and respect.
